Matt joined NAVHDA well before he got a dog. He had been wanting one for over 20 years, but he never pulled the trigger because he didn't live in places that access to wild birds.

Mae is his first bird dog and boy did he get a great one! Mae's sire is pictured on the November issue of Versatile Hunting Dog magazine! VC Fleming's Jake From Eshod.

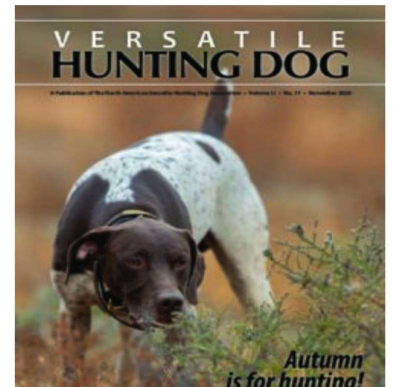

Matt often trains with other SD NAVHDA members but he also does a large amount of his training on his own. Mae has got an awesome nose, tons of drive and most importantly she is a devoted family dog. Matt and his wife Melia have 3 of the coolest kids you have ever met! His daughter Nala is an old pro at training days and loves to stomp around in her boots planting birds or whatever else is going on.

Matt and his family have been an awesome addition to SD NAVHDA, we are all looking forward to the fun Mae is going to have this year during her first hunting season!
